

Adventure Tour in Holy Jordan

September 19 - 27, 2022

ITINERARY

SEPTEMBER 19 - ARRIVAL

Your Jordan holiday begins with your arrival to the Queen Alia International Airport. Our airport representative will assist you with visas, luggage, and customs. Transfer to Amman. Overnight at hotel.

SEPTEMBER 20 - DESERT CASTLES & AMMAN CITY TOUR Qasr Al-Kharraneh

These three castles (Kharraneh, Amra and Azraq) are all disseminated on the black basalt desert running East of Amman.

This castle was built in the late seventh century, Qasr Al-Kharrana remains the best preserved, most dramatic and enigmatic of the “desert castles.” It lies 55 kilometres east of Amman, just south of the main road. Two stories high, with powerful stone walls interspersed with rounded interval and corner towers, this caravanserai, like some other desert castles, was never fully completed.

Qasr Amra

Continuing 15 km past Qasr al-Kharrana is Quseir ‘Amra. Certainly the finest of the Umayyad “desert resort pavilions.” The interior of this bathhouse reveals a breathtaking treasure of splendid sensuous frescoes from the mid-eighth century.

It is believed to have been built either by the Caliph Walid I, who built the famous mosque of Damascus, or by his son Yazid II. The buildings were constructed of limestone, yet the real attractions to Quseir Amra are the extensive frescoes.

Qasr Azraq

Qal’at al-Azraq (one hour drive from Amman, the last one of the three mentioned above) is located on the ancient main trade route, which served as a key junction from Saudi Arabia, Iraq and Syria. Pools of fresh water, now depleted, made it the largest oasis in the Jordanian desert. These pools of water gave name to the castle, which means blue in Arabic. There is indication that this area was used as a main centre prior to Roman times. It is believed that it was rebuilt during the reign of Constantine and served as a defensive military fortress overlooking the trade route. The Ayubbids rebuilt the fort in the 13 century. Archaeologists believe that it was used almost continuously until World War 1.

Travel back to Amman City, which includes the Citadel, the Archaeological Museum, the Roman Theatre, the Folklore Museum, and the Royal Automobile Museum.

Amman

The capital, Amman, is known in history as Rabbath-Ammon and in Greco-Roman times as Philadelphia. High above the city at the ancient Citadel, study the traces of Amman’s many lives: the regal columns of a roman temple in silhouette against the sky, the elegant capitals of a Byzantine church, endlessly inventive carvings in the Umayyad Palace, fascinating displays in the Archaeological Museum, and digs and ruins everywhere you step. At the foot of the Citadel, take a seat in the Roman Theatre, a deep-sided bowl carved into the hill and still used for cultural events.

Back to your hotel in Amman for overnight,

SEPTEMBER 21 - JERASH & AJLOUN

Jerash

Second only to Petra in tourist appeal, the ancient city of Jerash is remarkable for its long chain of human occupation, Here at a well-watered site in the hills of Gilead, remains from Neolithic times have been found as well as Greek, Roman, Byzantine, Umayyad and other ruins. Jerash’s golden age, however, arrived with Roman rule. Today, it is acknowledged as one of the best-preserved province cities of the Roman Empire. Jerash was a member of the Decapolis, a dynamic commercial league of ten Greco-Roman Cities.

Today, you can walk beneath the imposing south gate and then make your way up the ‘Street of Columns’ – the Roman Cardo- Running 600 meters north from the Oval Plaza. As you step over the tracks of chariot wheels, still visible in the paving stones, imagine prosperous citizens window-shopping beneath a covered sidewalk.

Ajloun Castle

Qalat er-Rabad, this is the name in Arabic, is located on a high peak overlooking the city of Ajloun, in the North of Jordan, some 24 km. West of Jerash. According to Salah-Eddin biographer, this castle was built between 1184 and 1185 by one of the Salah-Eddin nephews to oppose the Crusaders castles of Kerak and Shobak.

Back to your hotel in Amman for overnight,

SEPTEMBER 22 - MT. NEBO, MADABA, KERAK & PETRA

MOUNT NEBO is the mountain where Moses was allowed to see the Holy Land and not allowed to enter it. Nowadays the mountain is a memorial site. Here is the Memorial Church of Moses built by the first Christians. Ever since the first days of Christianity, this mountain has been a holy place and a destination for pilgrimage. Like Moses, you can have a great view over Jordan, the Dead Sea and Israel. When the weather is clear, you should even be able to see Jerusalem, which is about 60 kilometers away.

Madaba

South of Amman proudly stands the “City of Mosaics”, Madaba, perched on an archaeological site with more than 4000 years of history buried beneath it. The quality and quantity of mosaic flooring has made Madaba one of the most prominent cities in the world for mosaics. St. George’s Church houses the world famous mosaic floor depicting a large mosaic map of Palestine. Centrally located on this mosaic floor is a detailed map of Jerusalem as it was during the sixth century AD. At the Church of the Apostles, at the southern entrance of the city, is a mosaic floor attributed to the craftsman, Salamanios. It depicts the sea, with the central figure of a woman encircled with a selection of creatures, vegetation and an inscription.

Karak lies 129 kilometers south of Amman, or 88 kilometers south of Madaba. Within Karak, numerous small hotels are available. Karak can be reached via the Desert Highway by turning right at Qatrana. However, the King’s Highway is the recommended route as it will take you over one of Jordan’s most spectacular sights, Wadi Mujib. About 50 kilometers north of Karak, this canyon is over 1000 meters deep. Wadi Mujib was the “Arnon Gorge” or “Arnon River” of the Bible (Numbers 21: 24; Judges 11: 18), a natural boundary which separated the Moabites in the south from the Amorites in the north.

Arrive to your hotel in Petra for overnight.

SEPTEMBER 24 - PETRA

The ancient city of Petra was built from 800 BC to 100 AD by Nabatean Arabs. In this era, Petra was a fortress carved out of craggy rocks in an area, which was virtually inaccessible. In the first and second century, after the Romans took over, the city reached the peak of its fame. Petra covers an area of about 100 square km, where over 800 monuments can be found. When shipping slowly displaced caravan routes, the city's importance gradually dwindled. It fell into disuse and was lost to the world until 1812, when it was re-discovered by the Swiss explorer Johann Ludwig Burckhardt. Nowadays, Petra is Jordan's number one tourist attraction, known as the "rose-red city half as old as time". The Khazneh (the Treasury) starred in Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade.

SEPTEMBER 25 - PETRA - LITTLE PETRA - WADI RUM

Wadi Rum

Otherwise known as Valley of the Moon, the landscape of Wadi Rum with its immensity, color and awe-inspiring shapes, creates an almost supernatural atmosphere. This is the setting for the film Lawrence of Arabia, and the actual location where T.E. Lawrence set his camp, whose book "The Seven Pillars of Wisdom" was named after the seven natural columns varying in height located en route to Wadi Rum. Bedouin camps are evident in the Wadi, which is still home to a number of Bedouin families, who welcome visitors with the hospitality and generosity that Bedouins are so famous for. Explore the desert with a 4x4 driven by a local Bedouin, or overnight in a real Bedouin tent, in the middle of the desert.

Dinner and overnight at your camp in Wadi Rum

SEPTEMBER 26 - WADI RUM - DEAD SEA

After breakfast, check out from Camp in Wadi Rum and transfer to your hotel at the Dead Sea.

At 400 meter's below sea level, the Dead Sea is infinite in what it has to offer. Ever since the days of Herod the Great, people have flocked to the Dead Sea in search of its curative secrets. Due to high annual temperatures, low humidity and high atmospheric pressure, the air is extremely oxygenous, and the high content of oxygen and magnesium in the air make breathing a lot easier. With the highest content of minerals and salts in the world, the Dead Sea water possesses anti-inflammatory properties, and the dark mud found on the shores have been used for over 2000 years for therapeutic purposes.

Overnight at Dead Sea hotel.

SEPTEMBER 27 - DEAD SEA

After breakfast check out from your hotel. Transfer to Queen Alia International Airport for your departure flight. The drive from the Dead Sea to the airport will take around 45 minutes.

Our representative will assist the guests with formalities and immigration procedures.

OPTIONAL EXTENSION

Eilat Extension

Sep. 27 - Oct. 1, 2022

Starting at $1,498*

September 27

Departure from Jerusalem and drive to Eilat. Stop at Htzevat Complex for a light lunch on the client account.

Continue to Timna Park. The park has different forms of granite and sandstone whose erosion has created beautiful formations. Visit Solomon's Pillars, named after the king who, according to the Bible, had copper mines. See the "Mushroom" rock-formation carved out by the elements as well as the ruins of an ancient Chatchor Temple (the goddess of precious stones). View the new amazing multi-media journey through time. Arrive at your hotel in Eilat.

September 28

Today, drive to the unique Dolphin Reef Eilat, on the shores of the Red Sea. The reef is an ecological site unique in Israel and the rest of the world, where you can enjoy a natural atmosphere, magical views, and a secluded beach. Here, you will have the unusual opportunity of meeting and observing dolphins in their natural habitat. A group of "bottlenose" dolphins, including babies born at the site, maintain their daily routine of hunting, playing, courting and socializing here. You can enjoy getting close to the dolphins from the floating piers and observation points and partake in one of the activities offered: introductory dive with dolphins, snorkeling with dolphins, watching the dolphins, relaxing at the dolphin reef beach, or watching a nature movie about the life of the dolphins at the reef. Finish your day visiting the Underwater Observatory for a beautiful view of life underwater. Return to Eilat port at the end of this amazing experience.

September 29

An exciting jeep tour including some of the most famous highlights of the Eilat Mountains Nature Reserve. This 4x4 adventure (in open jeeps) follows the Great Rift Valley and includes the breathtaking views spanning the whole of the bay of Eilat, to Jordan, Egypt and Saudi Arabia. Go back to the Eilat to enjoy the rest of the day on your own.

September 30

After you check out of your hotel, depart Eilat and drive via the Arava Valley to the Hai-Bar Animal Reserve, where you will see animals that have been living in Israel since the times of the Bible. Depart Hai-Bar and drive to Kibbutz Yotvata, where you will hear the story of this communal settlement type unique to Israel. Visit the local dairy which produces widely-used dairy products, such as ice-cream, yogurt and milk. Enjoy a Kibbutz lunch and have Yotvata Ice cream for dessert.

Drive to Ben Gurion Airport for your return home.

October 1

Arrive Home.

STATEMENTS OF RESPONSIBILITY

We do not accept responsibility for losses or additional expenses due to delay or changes in air schedules, hotel overbookings, other hotel related problems or causes, and/or travel supplier cancellations or postponements. Travel suppliers include all tour operators, cruise lines, airlines, hotels, bus companies, entertainment venues, and any other travel supplier used to operate the tour. All such losses or expenses will be the responsibility of the passenger. We reserve the right to make adjustments to the itinerary as deemed desirable by us, and we reserve the right to cancel any tour prior to departure. If a tour is canceled beyond the control of us, we will provide a refund or a future travel credit to be used two years from the date of issuance for the value of all funds paid by the passenger less nonrefundable travel supplier prepaid deposits, travel supplier change fees, nonrefundable travel protection premiums, and a $150 administration fee.

ABILITY TO TRAVEL STATEMENT:

Passengers registering for the tour accept the responsibility for being in good health and able to walk and travel on the tour. Because many of the sites are not accessible to the physically challenged, those needing oxygen, wheelchairs, or other ambulatory assistance will find the tour extremely limiting to their experiences. We reserve the right to refuse or revoke travel to anyone who is, in the sole judgment of us, incapable of group travel without causing undue demands upon the staff or other tour participants. Accessible rooms/cabins are limited and subject to confirmation after receiving the passenger's written request.

PASSPORT INFORMATION:

Passport information must be submitted to our office no later than 06/06/22. Failure to provide your passport information to our office by this date may result in change fees or denial of travel. Discrepancies in information may result in change fees, delays in receiving travel documents for your trip, or denial of travel. Any fees incurred due to discrepancies are the responsibility of the passenger. Passports must be valid for at least 6 months after the return date.

PRICE INCREASES:

All prices quoted in this brochure are subject to change prior to payment in full due to currency fluctuations, fuel surcharge increases, government taxes and fees increases or unforeseen circumstances. In addition, you may be subject to a price increase after payment in full has been received due to potential government imposed taxes and fees.

AIRLINE ROUTES and TICKETS:

In order to keep prices low, we do not guarantee the most direct routing to your final destination. Once issued, airline tickets cannot be changed or refunded thereafter. Air transportation to/from your destination will be economy class on IATA and ARC carriers utilizing APEX or SUPER APEX non-refundable, non-amendable tickets for groups of 10 or more flying together on entire itinerary. If you choose to depart from a different city than your group or traveling companion, or deviate your flight and/or trip plans, and/or you are taking a pre or post tour, you may fly on a different scheduled flight(s) than the rest of your group. If you make your own air arrangements, you are responsible for booking all needed flights for your travel unless specified otherwise. Contact your travel advisor for further details.

FLIGHT TIMES AND SEATING:

All flights are subject to change by the airlines without advance notice. We are not responsible for such changes or delays and do not reimburse expenses resulting from such delays. If you are making your own flight arrangements to the departure city, we recommend you purchase a ticket that can be exchanged without large penalties. There is no advance seat selection for groups on most airlines. Early check-in is necessary to secure seats with travel companions and those with special needs. Due to security measures taken at airports, it is advisable to arrive at the airport three hours prior to departure time. Seating is solely under the control of the airlines. You will receive your flight information 60-30 days prior to departure. Final documents are sent approximately 2-3 weeks prior to departure.

ADDITIONAL AIRLINE FEES:

You will likely incur additional airline checked baggage fees that are not included in the price of the tour. These fees vary by airline and are at the airline's discretion on each segment of the flight itinerary. You may also incur optional fees i.e. food, excess baggage, overweight baggage, items of personal nature, etc.

DEVIATIONS AND AIR UPGRADE REQUESTS:

Deviation and Air Upgrade requests must be submitted in writing and are subject to additional airline fees. Deviations and Air Upgrades are not always possible given the group schedule and time of ticketing. Passengers who are ticketed with air deviations and/or upgrades will likely not fly with the group and will therefore need to provide their own transfers.

ITINERARY CHANGES:

Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of this brochure. While we will make every effort to ensure you will see all sites listed in this brochure, the availability of sites, order of sites and/or days and number of days may be altered to accommodate changes in airline, hotel schedules, and local conditions. No changes to the itinerary are effective unless approved in writing and signed by an authorized officer of the tour operator. Except as stated herein, no other person is authorized to cancel, modify or vary the tour arrangements or to make any representation of warranty concerning the tour. Due to airline schedules, some participants may receive one or two extra leisure days at a nominal per day charge and some extensions may not be available on all departure dates. If itinerary changes necessitate extra overnights, you will be charged $125 per night; single rooms $175 per night. Meals for extra nights are not included.

VALIDITY DATE:

This brochure is valid until 10/12/21. Registrations will still be accepted after the validity date.

RELEASE INFORMATION:

Payment of deposit indicates permission for us or our agents to record the registrant's participation and appearance on video tape, audio tape, film, photograph, or any other medium and to use the registrant's name, likeness, voice, comments, submitted documentation, written papers, and/or biographical material without restrictions or limitation for any advertising, marketing, publicity, educational or promotional purpose which we or our agents deem appropriate, unless the registrant or guardian otherwise notifies us in writing prior to departure.

Enrollment in, payment of deposit and/or acceptance of final documents, vouchers, or tickets shall be deemed to be consent to the Passenger Agreement and Program Conditions of the brochure. Prices are based on tariffs in effect as of January 1 of the previous year and are subject to adjustment without notice in the event of any change or currency fluctuation.

Except where otherwise stated, we act only as agent for the relevant supplier in securing hotels, transportation and other travel services and in no event shall we be liable for failure by any such supplier to render any transportation, lodging or other travel service to be provided on the tour. The passenger agrees that we assume no liability for injury, death, damage, loss, theft, accident, delay, any lost or damaged luggage, or irregularity which may occur by reason of any negligent or willful act or omission of any suppliers of service.

We do not own or operate any of the suppliers of services to your tour. Similarly without limiting the foregoing, passenger agrees to hold us harmless for any defect in any vehicle, plane, boat, bus, car, van or other vehicle, act of war or insurrection, terrorist activity, revolt or other civil uprising, military action, strikes or labor unrest or any Act of God or for any other act of any third party.
