August 11 - Bana Hills & Hoi An Town
Traveling National Highway 1 south to Hoi An is around a 4-hour drive. We'll stop by Lang Co Beach, followed by a scenic drive over the stunning Hai Van Mountain Pass. The views over Lang Co Bay and Da Nang are stunning. We'll make stops along the way for photos and refreshments as required. Passing by Da Nang, we head to the Ba Na Hills. This hill resort, inherited from the French, has refreshingly cool weather and gorgeous countryside views. Until World War II, the French were carried up the last 20 kilometers of a rough mountain road by sedan chair, but now a 5.7-kilometer (the world's longest) cable car system has opened access. The ride involves a rise of almost 1,400 m, a truly spectacular trip through dense jungle and past waterfalls. Walk the Golden Bridge. This remarkable construction has attracted visitors worldwide, eager to see a novel piece of architecture renowned for its distinctive design. The bridge was designed to evoke the image of the 'giant hands of God,' pulling a strip of gold out of the ground, and to connect the cable car station with the gardens, and to provide a fantastic scenic overlook. Continue to Hoi An and check into your hotel.
Overnight in Hoi An.

August 12 - Our Lady of Trà Kiêu

In the afternoon, take the Hoi An walking tour. Between the 17th and 19th centuries, Hoi An was a thriving trading port, with a diverse range of foreign occupations. These included the Japanese and Chinese, as well as Westerners (Dutch and Spanish), during the 16th and 17th centuries. Today, the UNESCO World Heritage-listed ancient town is home to well-preserved buildings, pedestrianized streets, a quaint riverside, and unique cuisines. The narrow lanes are ideal for a three-hour walking tour, offering a glimpse of an ancient town with its illustrious past. You will visit the Japanese Bridge, the Assembly Hall of the Chinese, and an old merchant's house—Tan Ky is a beautiful town of all lanterns by night. In the evening, immerse yourself in a spectacular cultural experience with the "Hoi An Memories" Show. This breathtaking outdoor performance brings Hoi An's heroic and romantic history to life, taking you on a journey through its rich heritage and vibrant identity. Featuring over 500 talented dancers and actors, stunning props, and mesmerizing stage effects, the show captivates with its impressive choreography and state-of-the-art sound and lighting.
